Amazing idea

Rated 5.0 out of 5

I am amazed by your idea and using your techniques I'm trying to train my mother who has movement and balance issue due to a brain stroke and trying to help her build new neuropaths and she is very hopeful after watching these videos.

Stephen Lives What He Teaches

Rated 5.0 out of 5

"I've known Stephen for about 19 years and he has always lived what he teaches about never leaving the playground. He has taken me on many trips kayaking in boats of his own design and manufacture, skateboarding, biking, and hiking, rope walking, and making pottery, which he is a master at. He is young of heart!"

Great week of classes w/Stephen

Rated 3.0 out of 5

Just spent a week at JCCFS taking pottery classes from Stephen. I got a mix of his fantastic pottery skills with some valuable observations on life. Looking forward to the next time!

Designed To Move

Rated 5.0 out of 5

Designed to Move is the title of my new book following up on Sitting Kills Moving Heals. Thank you Stephen for being such a fan. It's mutual of course. Designed to move gets into the mechanics of optimal motion. We are designed to be perpetual motion machines - cannot think of anyone other than you who would be more qualified .
